Jeff,

REDACTED MATERIAL - CONFIDENTIAL SETTLEMENT NEGOTIATIONS

I

don't think we will reach a formal agreement by Oct. 20th, which is when I must reply to the court's Order to Show Cause, so you may want to go ahead and file an Answer, as I intend to explain to the Court that Mr. Davis has timely fulfilled his obligations with the Court up to this point.

Thanks,
Ashley

So let's get it resolved before that date. Please encourage Mr. Davis to accept the offer – it is essentially all that SpeechFX and Mr. Dudley can do.

Ashley;

We'll file a responsive pleading if we cannot settle the case. Obviously, we are not interested in more legal fees if we can settle the case at this juncture. When do you need to reply to the OTSC?

Best, Jeff

Jeff,

I apologize for not responding sooner; I've been out of the office since October 2nd. Leo is considering the latest offer (articulated in your Sept. 30th email) and we hope to have an answer to you soon. In the meantime, I received an Order to Show Cause from the District Court on October 7th. I know you agreed to waive service for all Defendants back in August, and I intend to file the signed waiver of service form with the Court by October 20th. I had calendared Defendants' Answer deadline for October 6, so I'm wondering if Defendants intend to file an Answer. Please let me know as soon as possible.

Thanks,
Ashley
